

Presidio Networked Solutions Is Honored To Be Named:

2009 SERVICES PARTNER OF THE YEAR

For The Second Year in a Row Presidio Has Been Recognized As Services Partner of the Year by EMC!

“Being recognized, again this year, is a continuing testament to our engineering, sales and support team’s dedication to superior service and solution deployment,” commented Presidio Networked Solutions Division Co-President Robert Murphy. “It’s through the strength of partnerships like this that our customers have come to expect — and receive — world-class technology and service offerings that support growth, deliver rapid ROI and meet their broader business needs.”

The Partner of the Year award recognizes partners who exceed sales and business goals, achieve significant market penetration, and provide superior support throughout the year. The Services Partner of the Year award honors the partner that has achieved continued success by meeting the needs of its customers through IT services based on EMC technology.
